every hooted and hollered when Seliga and McTeer were among the first five runners to reach that point. On their heels was Michele (Mike) Graglia from Italy. Graglia had already passed over 70 runners who'd had a two-hour head start! One of those runners was Gregory Castle, who was doing well further back in the pack. Many employees at Best Friends were planning to cheer him on later Tuesday evening.

The first racer to finish Stage 1, after a grueling 30.8 miles (49.6 kilometers), was Michele (Mike) Graglia of Italy, in 4 hours, 57 minutes, 47 seconds. Photo by Troy Snow.
